

SHAREHOLDER COMMUNICATIONS AND INVESTOR RELATIONS POLICY

1. PURPOSE

The Board recognises that it needs to engage with its shareholders and provide them with appropriate information and facilities to allow them to exercise their rights as shareholders effectively. This includes:

- a) giving shareholders access to information about the Company and its governance;
- b) communicating openly and honestly with shareholders; and
- c) encouraging and facilitating their participation in meetings of shareholders.

The purpose of this policy is to outline how the Company will provide shareholders and other investors with information about itself and its governance, and to outline the Company's investor relations program.

References in this policy to communicating and interacting with shareholders includes, where securities are held by a custodian or nominee, communicating or interacting with the beneficial owner of the securities where known by the Company.

2. COMPANY WEBSITE

The Company has a website which can be found at www.pilbaraminerals.com.au. The Company's website is designed to provide shareholders and other investors with helpful information about the Company including:

- a) an overview of the Company's current business and operations;
- b) a description of how the Company is structured and details of its board and senior management;
- c) once they are known, the time, venue and other relevant details for general meetings and the annual general meeting;
- d) historical information about the market prices of the Company's securities (linked through www.asx.com.au);
- e) copies of ASX or media releases the Company makes; and
- f) contact details for enquiries from shareholders, analysts or the media.

The Company's website has a "corporate governance" landing page from where the Company's relevant corporate governance information can be accessed. The following information is available in the corporate governance area of the Company's website:

- a) its constitution, its Board Charter and the charters of each of its Board committees;
- b) its corporate governance policies and procedures; and
- c) the Company's 'Pilbara Purpose'.

The Company may also make available on its website the following information on a regular and up-to-date basis:

- a) the names, photographs and brief biographical information for each of its directors and senior executives;
- b) copies of its annual reports and financial statements for the previous three years;
- c) copies of its announcements to ASX for the previous three years;
- d) copies of notices of meetings of security holders and any accompanying documents for the previous three years; and
- e) certain investor related interviews or presentations and copies of any relevant materials.

3. ELECTRONIC COMMUNICATION

The Company gives shareholders the option to receive communications from, and send communications to, the Company and its security registry electronically.

Shareholders and other investors are able to register on the Company's website to receive information updates about the Company.

4. GENERAL MEETINGS

The Company recognises general meetings as an important forum for two-way communication between the Company and its shareholders. The meetings provide the Company with an opportunity to impart to shareholders a greater understanding of its business, governance, financial performance and prospects, as well as to discuss areas of concern or interest to the Board and management. The meetings also provide shareholders with an opportunity to express their views to the Company's Board and management about any areas of concern or interest for them.

The Company endeavours to actively engage with shareholders at its general meetings and encourages attendance and participation at its meetings.

The Company provides information in the notice of meeting that is presented in a clear, concise and effective manner.

In accordance with section 250S of the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth), at the Company's General Meetings, the Chair of the meeting will allow a reasonable opportunity for members to ask questions about or make comments on the management of the Company.

The Company's practice is that all substantive resolutions at General Meetings are decided by poll rather than a show of hands.

5. SHAREHOLDER MEETINGS AND ENQUIRIES

The Company endeavours to respond to any shareholder enquiries they may receive in a timely manner.
